Lisa Conners Vogt, Founder of Ever Better Coaching and Consulting, works with visionary leaders throughout the world who describe her as a trusted thought partner in making high-stakes decisions.

A Certified Professional Coach accredited by the International Coach Federation (ICF), Lisa specializes in one-on-one executive and leadership coaching, and group coaching. She creates custom workshops using a range of facilitator tools and assessments including DiSC and Five Behaviors.

Lisa brings her optimism, positive energy, and undivided attention to each client conversation. She recognizes that breakthrough professional achievements are achieved when personal, academic, and professional experiences are integrated. She inspires each client to incorporate their unique wisdom earned through significant accomplishments and experiences such as divorce, cancer, addiction, and the effects of systemic inequity.

Over a thirty-year career, Lisa held senior roles in a range of industries and organizations that inform her perspective and provide insights into client experiences. This includes consulting, non-profits, commercial insurance, financial institutions, telecommunications, and an educational facility.

Lisa is a mentor for the Entrepreneurs Roundtable Accelerator, and Colgate University's Thought Into Action Accelerator. A podcaster, Lisa produced over 100 episodes of Founders and Startups and Ever Better. True to her company name, Ever Better, she continuously engages in self-study, and enjoys hiking, Pilates and traveling from her home base in Bethesda, MD.
